

EXECUTIVE SERVICE

As a C-level individual, you are regarded as a leader who steers the boat and set the tone for everybody else.

This is a huge responsibility and the most important role of all.

The changes will happen through you or won't happen at all. This is why we always start with you.

We spend time with you

- first to help you to develop your consciousness, by doing seminars on wake up, clean up and grow up, show up. So that you will get an holistic vue, and become authentic leaders that do not exercise dominance and control to reach a goal, but who are of service to the business, its people, its customers and the community. Leaders, who inspire with inner strength, clarity and direction, and who provide an environment for personal and organizational growth.
- secondly make sure that the management board is aligned and committed in the vision and the strategy of the company.

When you have demonstrated that you have become authentic examples of conscious and collaborative leaders, we can then start working with the rest of the organization, identifying areas of improvement in relation to: consciousness, behaviour, innovation, agility, collaboration, organization.

Any discrepancy at this level will have enormous consequences further down the organization. We will also help you to better collaborate if necessary.

But as in any team of any level of an organization, the C-level individuals have challenges, doubts, and personal difficulties...

Through consultancy, workshops and 1 on 1 coaching with experienced consultants and facilitators, we make sure that the C level team is fully functioning and aligned on a sound strategy and a compelling vision.

We believe that you have the answers and that our role is not to tell you what to do, but rather to create an environment where you can, as a team and an individual, unleash your potential and the potential of your organization.
